

Doctor of Philosophy in Economics/Finance & Banking

Applicants for the Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) programme must possess:

- a) A master's degree from Universiti Utara Malaysia or any other institutions of higher learning recognised by the University Senate. For a master degree with CGPA, the minimum CGPA is 3.00; or
- b) Any other equivalent qualifications recognised by the University Senate; and
- c) Fulfil the English language requirement as set by the university senate

Other requirements for PhD:

- i. The applicants should attach a motivational letter and research proposal.
- ii. The applicants must propose supervisors' name who have already agreed with the research topic.
- iii. For those who are short listed will be called for an interview session.

Programme duration

Programme	Structure	Full-time		Part-time
		Minimum	Maximum	Minimum	Maximum
PhD in Economics/ Finance & Banking	Research	4 semesters	10 semesters	6 semesters	14 semesters

Tuition fees

Coursework
	Malaysian		Asean	Non-Asean
	Full-time	Part-time	Full-time	Full-time
	RM	RM	RM	RM
Tuition	1850/semester	1350/semester	2220/semester	2405/semester
Pre-requisite courses	150/credit hour	150/credit hour	200/credit hour	230/credit hour
Thesis examination (viva voce)	1750/semester	1750/semester	1950/semester	2150/semester
Thesis-re-examination (re-viva)	1750/semester	1750/semester	1950/semester	2150/semester

Programme Structure

PhD is offered by full research. Students should have adequate research knowledge and skills as stipulated by the Academic Committee. Students who do not possess these criteria are required to register and pass the following two (2) pre-requisite courses with at least a B grade before they continue with their research:

SZRZ6014 Research Methodology

SCLE6014 Academic Writing

Any other courses as determined by the supervisor or Academic Committee